

Prof. Dr. Nuray Ekşi obtained her Ph.D. title in 1995, having successfully defended a PhD thesis on International Jurisdiction of Turkish Courts; the title of “Associate Professor” in 1999, on the basis of a monograph on Arresting Foreign Ships and the title of “Professor” in 2005 on the basis of a monograph on Arbitration Agreements Made Through Incorporation by Reference in International Maritime Law. Prof. Dr. Ekşi is a regular speaker at seminars, conferences and panels held in Turkey and in various other countries. She spoke and acted as chair at many conferences, panels and seminars that she organized in co-operation with various institutions in Turkey, or at those organized by others in Turkey or abroad. Prof. Dr. Ekşi is in the editorial or advisory boards of, or appears in the list of referees, of various academic journals. She is the founder and also editor in chief of the Journal of International Trade and Arbitration Law-JITAL which has been in publication since 2012. She was also one of the lecturers at The Hague Academy of International Law in the Netherlands, in Private International Law Session held on 1-21 July 2006.

Prof. Dr. Ekşi is the author and co-author of several books on private international law, nationality law, foreigners’ law, conflict of laws, international procedural law, international commerce law, international arbitration law, enforcement and recognition of foreign court judgments, foreign capital investments and European Union private international law. Her articles were published both in Turkish and foreign law journals. In addition to many articles and books on migration and asylum law, her book on the New Turkish Law on Foreigners and International Protection: An Overall Assessment was published by Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft, Baden-Baden, Germany in 2014 as part of series in Schriften zum Migrationsrecht 17.